MAKE LOVE, NOT WAR Inspired by the poetry of modern songwriters - especially the writing of Bob Dylan and the mystical poetry of Rumi, Rilke and Rimbaud - Present: New Poems / Song to the Beloved is a book of spiritual, social, political and love poetry set to music. New Poems is strongly anti-war and challenges modern concepts of "God" while seeking to promote peace and love between all countries and cultures. Song to the Beloved is a fictional story of love and longing driven by the passion and music of dreams. The poems are arranged in the order they were written and are intended to be read in sequence as a short novel. Included in the text are 20 original images of the author's black and white photography and colored pencil drawings which have been converted to grayscale for this first paperback edition.
