"High octane passion" JG Reynolds

SEXY or PSYCHOPATH? - Would you know the difference?

As a teenager Jennifer was discovered by a bitchy but world-famous choreographer and tossed into the world of professional dance with its show business predators.

Years later Jennifer arrives in Buenos Aires, the glamorous city at the end of the world, to perfect her tango. Betrayed by love, after a series of selfish Latino lovers and crazy expat women friends, she meets intense and brooding Vicente at the end of the world, high in the Andes mountains.

Is their relationship intense distorted passion or emotional torture? A love affair with a narcissist swings so wildly it's impossible to pin down.

"Last Tango" depicts a woman's love choices from the very earliest and explores the subtle and silent devastation inflicted by narcissistic men. Traveling the length of Argentina, "Last Tango" asks us to question the psychological drama of understanding narcissism in family and love relationships.

"Completely hooked. The sex was real and raw." Sophie Radice

"A book I would ignore my husband for. Spicy and witty and at times a little naughty. The joy and pain of losing control and sanity over a sexy man. Superb and delicious." Kim Jewell
