Inspirational Reflections for Life Challenges Yesterday was forever and today is what you thought was never. Yesterday is gone, today is still new. tomorrow is when you must decide what to do. Looking for the constant concepts of What, Where, Who or Why of all occurrences in our life journeys. We find God as the constant source of righteousness and integrity for our existence in this world. "What" is in taking heart and taking heed in life processes. "Where" is here, there and everywhere; it is wherever you experience life challenges and trials of enlightenment. "Who" is in you-your reputation, honesty, sense of integrity, and how others portray or perceive you in your travels. "Why" is life in general-no tall tales to be told, no particular episode will possibly explain the existence of our life journeys. Inspirational Reflections for Life Challenges will open hearts, eyes, and minds to everyday events of life journeys. Patricia Hall Dillard is one who has been blessed by God with the ability to write words of encouragement, enlightenment, and motivation and have an avenue to present them to the world for knowledge and life purpose. There are no claims of experience in her repertoire, because she is only the instrument being used for enlightenment of God's words. Ms. Dillard credentials are that she is a servant of God and in working through all of her life challenges; she has come to the knowledge of the term "Obedience is better than Sacrifice." This is her time of obedience to write what God has instructed her to write and present to all who will read it, and for understanding of what is and what is to come. Wishing all who read this book blessings in life and all areas of their existence!
