With this book as a guide, anyone can learn to create colorful, imaginative animal characters out of polymer clay. Starting with basic skills that increase in complexity over the course of several projects, crafters will fashion a variety of "animal-at-work" figurines. Information about the common problems and pitfalls that beginning polymer clay artists face help them to make progress on the first day of modeling and avoid any start-up frustrations. Eventually they'll begin designing their own personalized handtailored gifts great for any occasion. The book includes: 15 step-by-step projects that build upon techniques and experience; tips and tricks on using polymer clay; clothing templates and advice for finding and using "props" with figures; suggestions on how to include children in on the fun
