The Littlest Witch Tony Jerris, Corinne Aquilina

The Easter Bunny better hop quickly, Santa Claus better hold on to his trousers, and the whole barnyard better sing the blues because one little witch can't get her fill of tricks. This mischievous little wonder wishes every day was Halloween and creates witching mayhem wherever she goes. All seems to be going her way until a giant spider and a rapping record producer step into the picture, and The Littlest Witch must learn to play nice to see who her real friends are. With a whimsical score and clever book, "The Littlest Witch" rises to every holiday occasion. "Funny and innocent enough for children, but enough adult humor for the whole family!" –Brighton-Pittsford Post
