Becoming The Mobster's Bride...

The villa that I rented for my trip ends up being owned by none other than Luca Santiago Accorsi, a renowned playboy billionaire with alleged ties to the Italian mafia. But the one thing no one can deny is his charm, or his penchant for always having a beautiful woman on his arm, or two. He is hiding out in his country home in northern Italy, expecting nothing more than a quiet few weeks during Christmas when a storm rolls in, bringing me with it, an American beauty whose no-nonsense attitude awakens something in him. The need to show me how to have a little fun. But fun quickly turns into something more serious as his past catches up to him, and before he even realizes it, I'm gone, vacation over, back to my real life. Will we both have the courage to take a chance on the impossible, that just maybe we found our soul mates? Or will we let the the best thing that ever happened to us slip away?

Italian Billionaire's Holiday Bride...

Bliss and Ricardo have a strange relationship: they are husband and wife for a couple of days every year around Christmas. In the rest of their time they are just close friends and never really cross the line that separates sympathy from passion. Things get a little complicated as the holiday season approaches: Ricardo's family is getting suspicious about his wife and wants to see some proof of that supposed to be real marriage. They decide to get married for real in order to be able to show the paperwork as proof and also forge some evidence, like pictures on which they seemingly have a great time together. Problem is that the pretending of having a great time together results in really having a great time together and once that fine line is crossed there is no turning back.
