A tall, dark, handsome stranger walks into a shop... When Ella Strong first sets eyes on the achingly handsome Ian Blackmon, she can never even imagine what will happen next. Never. Three and a half weeks—and the abrupt loss of her innocence—later, she flees Blackmon and the country, heartbroken and disillusioned. Will he find her? Who will write the end of their story: Ella, Ian, or the deranged but beautiful Natasha, out for revenge against the Blackmon family? And what are Ian's chances of winning her back? After all, he was the man who sent her running in the first place. If a day can make a difference, consider what might go down in three and a half weeks.
