A Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English eric partridge

New, Revised, and Enlarged Fifth (5th) Edition. From the fifteenth century to the present day. From jacques Barzun "When you first open theÉ(book) you see stars. The unprintable words of the dockyard, the editorial room, and the Pentagon stand there, mute and harmless through losing their vowels, which have been appropriately replaced by stars...But the Dictionary does not move only in these heavens. A large part of it is devoted to expressions other than improprieties. In explaining and classifying both slang and unconventional English, our lexicographer is usually terse and almost invariably lucid, which...is a great feat."
