Walter's Choice Angel Raymond

Warning: Although this book is more romance than erotice, it does contain a few scenes of sexual activity, as well as themes that sensitive people may find offensive (including hypnosis and bisexuality). The alternate ending is a little extreme, and should be avoided if you like 'Happily ever after's.

Walter Blake's love life has always been pretty full. He could get laid every night of the week, if he wanted. But lately he's found something lacking, and gone looking for an experience a little more intense.

A shady website introduces him to an enigmatic, powerful dominatrix who promises she'll make him completely hers; body, mind and soul. It would be perfect, if he hadn't just found a cute friend who makes him wonder if this is what they mean by Love.

- Is excitement more important than trust?
- Can he be sure his Mistress is all she claims?
- And does Walter even have the choice?
