A Long Way to Freedom Stanislava Harvanova

Samantha Hailey was always different from other kids.

When she was only two years old, she was forcefully taken away from her family to a place where she had to work hard with other kids to survive. One day, she is able to escape, leaving all her friends behind. She starts a new life, but even though she is free, she doesn't feel like it. Will Samantha Hailey find out who she really is and why she was kidnapped?

And if she does, will she be able to go on and do what she wants? To free her friends so they, too, could be free together after many years of suffering? Will they be able to get what they deserve and want? Freedom.
