Seven Epistemological Essays From Hobbes to Popper: With Nietzsche, Duhem and Peirc Angele Kremer-Marietti

In these seven essays, the French philosopher Angele Kremer-Marietti gives us a glimpse of her philosophy. Her attention goes to the epistemological origin as a problem relative to any symbolicity. Trying to put the foundations of a theory of reasoning on the ground of philosophy as philosophy, she asks the fundamental question : what are meaning the presupposed terms of the philosophical research ? With the intention of receiving words as simple symbolic items, she thinks that symbolization is the most important way of proceeding together as in natural language as in philosophy and science.
