Vicuñiana: El arte y la poesía de Cecilia Vicuña, un diálogo Sur/Norte (Spanish Edition) Meredith Gardner Clark

Se ha clasificado la obra de Cecilia Vicuña como una que transgrede fronteras entre varios medios, temas y culturas. Más allá de ser poeta y artista visual, podríamos decir que su rol aproxima al de un DJ cultural. No obstante, en vez de encontrarla en un club mezclando elementos de luz, sonido y palabras, la hallamos urdiendo y tramando estos medios en la calle, el río, las montañas, las carreteras y las galerías de los museos internacionales. Poeta y artista nacida en Santiago en 1948, Vicuña, empieza su carrera artística en Chile; no obstante, debido al golpe militar en 1973, desarrolla la mayor parte de su obra fuera del país. Como resultado, se produjo un rezago que alejó al público hispano hablante de la obra vicuñiana. Debido a esto, este volumen ha sido creada especialmente para los lectores de lengua española. En sus páginas, se encuentran doce ensayos inéditos de siete autoras chilenas y cinco autoras norteamericanas que se especializan en diversos campos académicos y literarios. Ofreciendo una variedad de perspectivas que provienen de geografías e instituciones diversas, el libro traza la trayectoria temporal de la crítica sobre la obra de Vicuña.
