Nothing prepared Anastasia Steele her rendezvous with Christian Gray, a young entrepreneur, spins and charismatic, and nothing had prepared her intense attraction and romance occurs between the sensual and shaking to happen. But the real surprise was awaiting her preferred sexual practice Christian, meeting her with a world of emotions and feelings she did not know before. But in order to live in his own world needed Anastasia greater commitment on his part, and in order not to lose it - Christian agreed. Now it seems to have everything: love, passion, intimacy, wealth and endless possibilities. But Anna knows his side of the Christian life are a complex challenge: it needs to adjust his extravagant lifestyle without losing the self, and he in turn must learn to give up his obsessive need to control it. Together they have enormous power seems to be able to narrow crisis, but lack of - luck, evil - the heart and fate come together to confront them with the darkest fears. Fifty Shades of release is the third book in a trilogy that captured the attention of readers and broke sales records in fifty countries around the world. It tells the story of an impossible love - forgotten and is intended for readers adults only.
