The New Landlord Marne Duvall

College student Caitlyn James rents a house at a price that seems too good to be true her last year of school. Unfortunately, the offer was made by the ex-wife of the owner, Dagan Brandt, in order to cause problems for him. To make the contract work, Caitlyn agrees to live in his house while it is remodeled, and he takes a job outside the country for the school year. His friend, Annabelle, oversees the remodel project, but resents Caitlyn since she wants Dagan for herself. Caitlyn and Dagan communicate through emails, phone calls, and computer chats about the progress of the house and their daily lives. In the few days when he's home for the holidays, there's chemistry, and Caitlyn can't ignore it, but she also can't afford to move out.

Scott Settle:

As a pupil exactly feel bored in order to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's spirit or real their hobby. They just do what the trainer want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading very seriously. Any students feel that reading through is not important, boring and can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The New Landlord can make you feel more interested to read.
