Clara was influenced by the time and geographical region where she was born. She was an individual pioneer who did not let negative influences stop her. She has a zest for life and sees beauty in all things. She has “art in her eyes.” Clara quietly changed her circumstances and vowed not to repeat mistakes that she witnessed. This led her to become a beloved creative teacher for thousands of children. The art she created has inspired others to find the artist inside of them. To this day, she is still dreaming of new projects, clay creations, quilt designs, and is gathering snippets that would look exquisite in a kaleidoscope.
