"Your persistence is inspiring, if not a little bothersome. You remind me of Carmen. She wouldn't let a person rest until she got what she wanted. You seem to be cut from the same cloth as she was. It must be something in the Tennessee air."

Cadence Weekes realized that there was something very special about Carmen Clayton. However being friends with an up and coming actress in Hollywood in the 1950s might have been more than she bargained for.

After being contacted by a young woman interested in learning more about Carmen, former screenwriter, Cadence, reluctantly agrees to tell all, including Carmen's rise to stardom, her love affairs with many men and, ultimately, her tragic death.

Complete Unknown is a mystery/suspense novel about an elderly woman recounting her life and friendship with an actress during Hollywood's Golden Age.
