If you struggle with low self-esteem and long to be confident, assured, and secure in who you were created to be...then don't read another person's opinion or self-help book on how to gain "self"-esteem.

Why do I say this?...because most of self-help books tell you to place your confidence in your own abilities, attractiveness, wealth, possessions, and perceived status. But these things never lead us to experience lasting confidence, as they teach us to look "inward." We didn't create ourselves; therefore, we have no ability to gain correct confidence solely from our skills, accomplishments, or hard work. Trying to gain esteem apart from God - (the Giver of true esteem) - is empty, pointless, and what the Bible calls vanity. One day we'll leave this earth, but the empty things we place value in won't be following us. God has told us what has lasting value and will not fade away, rust, or perish. Learn how to gain correct confidence in the only thing that won't be taken from you and that ultimately matters -- Christ and eternal life with Him.

Chapters:

-Who Gave You Your Identity?

-Self-Esteem verses God-Esteem

-Confidence Comes from God's Love For Us

-How the World Views Confidence and Self-Esteem

-Learning More About our God-Given Purpose Gives Us Confidence

-We Gain Confidence When We Understand How Much Value God Places on Us

-Humility is the Essence of Intimacy with God

-Confidence is Every Believer's Calling
