Waiting Bonnie Dodge

Three generations of Foster women—senior citizen Maxine, attention seeker Grace, and aspiring artist Abbie—think they are nothing alike. But they all share a secret. They wait. For love, for attention, for life, for death, for Idaho's warm, but promising summer to return. In their journeys between despair and happiness, they learn there are worse things than being alone, like waiting for the wrong person's love. With sensitivity and humor, Waiting carries readers into the hearts of three women who learn that happiness comes from within.
