Five Great British Horror Stories: BOOK TWO Helen Gray

The second Book in the popular FIVE GREAT BRITISH HORROR series! Prepare yourself for intelligent tales of cruelty, psychopaths and the supernatural that will seep into your psych and shape your nightmares! School sports day, but why are some of the boys taking it so seriously? A woman has been murdered, so how come she is phoning her work colleague's mother? Danger is seen in the palm of a girl's hand, but from where will the danger come? Is the holiday cottage full of friendly hobbits or an evil witch? And how will the prophecy of a murdered boy be fulfilled?

For anyone bored of gross-out horror who is ready for something more sophisticated and disturbing, these tales will creep up and grab you when you least expect it. Be warned, hooked on the mysteries and the twists you will quickly finish the book, but the book may never be finished with you.

This collection includes an interesting author's note on the local legend of Kenelm, the medieval Prince murdered on the orders of his own sister, that inspired the story 'St Kenelm's Well'
