Meditate Jason Rowland

The enemy has thwarted the power of meditating. We are taking it back to the original purpose that God has intended - to meditate, or walk and talk, on His Word on a consistent basis. Reading the whole Bible throughout the year is good for many, but what if we were to take a verse or two and just meditate on it for a while. There is a promise of success and prosperity in your life which comes from meditating on His Word and then discover victory in very areas of your life.

From the Author:

Years ago, I learned of this valuable teaching about meditating on the Word of God and it transformed my life. I began building my life upon these principles of His Word and found them to bring peace into every aspect of my personal life and ministry. I pray you discover the plans our Heavenly Father has for you to sit, speak, and walk in His Word and discover the triumphant living He has for you!

About the Author:

Jason Rowland is lead pastor of Living Waters Atlanta, a vibrant, exciting church located in Riverdale, Georgia which is just outside Atlanta. It is a great church which is reaching the heart of its community while reaching the heart of God. Living Waters boasts being a church of every nation, tribe, and tongue with over 20 nations who worship together. Every Sunday, there is a fusion of people from various cultures and economic backgrounds - from the homeless to professionals- who come to worship one Lord, Jesus Christ.
