Chaos: The Outsider's Guide to a Contested Republican National Convention Mr John Patrick Yob
The Republican National Convention in Cleveland, Ohio from July 18th - 21st 2016 will be the first contested convention since 1976 and the first convention since 1948 to be decided after multiple ballots. The conservative anti-establishment groundswell that began in the primary season of 2010, and continues today with the dominance of the outsider portion of the spectrum will culminate in a chaotic contested convention that will decide the nominee of the Republican Party and ultimately the next President of the United States. This outsiders guide demonstrates how and why the Republican Convention is on the verge of chaos. It shows the key players, the important rules, and the critical states that will determine the winner on the convention floor. People who read this book will know more than anyone else about the most interesting Republican Presidential nomination in a generation.
